

CARTER

2B

During lockdown there are lots of good times and some bad times.

What I have found tricky is that I can't see most of my family. But what I have really enjoyed in lockdown is I can still go to school and learn as much as possible. I love giving my parents the biggest hugs ever and I have been ringing my nan and grandad to see that they are alright.

